My Dear Sir,

Thanking you for sending me the President's message and accompanying Documents permit me to ask of you the additional favor of procuring from the new Secretary of State as soon as he enters upon the duties of his office passports for the individuals named in the enclosed affidavit and enclose them in time to reach me by the 9th or which^{ever} or the 10th we expect to sail for California.

Fearing that possibly you may be absent from the City, I have made a direct application to the Secretary of State for the passports, but in the confusion incident to the first few days of a new Administration I fear my application may be overlooked and I will therefore be greatly obliged if you will be so kind as to see that they are made out and mailed to my address in the City of Brooklyn Long Island N.Y. in time to reach me before the time I expect to sail with my family for California if you are in the city

I also ask of you in the name of the farm to replace the enclosed Pass-port by another, as in its mutilated condition it might occasion my friend some difficulty. You will perceive that the "Hair" is stated to be "dark green", instead of dark Brown, and in endeavoring to remove the green has mutilated the face of the document. Had it been noticed by me at the time I should have advised him to return it forthwith, but as he had but a few days' leisure he endeavored to correct the error himself.

Yours truly

Dear Sir:

on behalf of a late constituent, I apply to your Department for a passport. Mr.
William F. White, the officiant, is known to me as a highly respectable man, very strongly connected in our City. The necessary description is enclosed.

Very truly yours,

Horace Evelly.

P.S. In selecting ^{the} journals wherein the laws are to be officially published, I beg you to consider the claims of The Madison Express (Whig State Paper of Wisconsin) and Keokuk Register by John W. Davis & Brother in Iowa.
I am not sure that there are not stronger claims in the latter case, but the right of the Madison Express to be one of the ^{official} papers in that State is beyond reasonable doubt.

Mr Reddall

I beg pardon for again troubling Mr Reddall - I wrote a few hasty words by this mail & forgot to beg duplicates - Passports for Mr N. Anderson & also Mr. Williams (asked for by me on the 9th in case they had gone astray - as the boat was to sail in the same week Saturday morning - & no time to be if I get the others (in case they had been sent) I will return them.

I think the Passport of "Dall" I returned today must have been meant for "Ferguson" to whose identity, Dall swore - as Mr. F. was not rec^d by me, with Mr. Dall - both having gone by same mail -

Very Respectfully

Jos. B. Jones has the honor to acknowledge from W. C. Riddell Esq. several Passports by this Cars mail here, as also two notes from Mr. R. for which Mr. W. thanks that Gentleman, - they shall meet due attention.

In the haste of business Mr. R. has sent Mr. W. 2 Passports for the same Person viz. Mrs. H. Wall; The one Mr. W. retains, & numbered 188. & is correct - while the one Mr. W. now takes the liberty to return, is 180 - and altho' billed up for Mrs. H. Wall - does not answer his description & is evidently intended for another person - more we should desire to see than to request a favor of our dearest friend I have no claim, either upon the score of intimate acquaintance, or obligation, particularly when the conferring of the favor may be accompanied by an inward blessing

Dear Sir.

This will be handed you by my son John Scott Jr. He and my daughter Mrs Margaret G. Lee are about to sail from New York for France. They will require passports. Will you be good enough to aid in procuring them —

I intended to be in Washington a day or two ago, but have been detained here by bad weather, and delicate health — I shall without fail, reach Washington in the Sunday's Boat

Permit me to congratulate you on the success of our party, and your own part in it — Our stay in Washington will be short, but I hope, long enough to enable us, especially the travellers, to pay our respects to the President — I am very far from being a man worshiper and do not like to hear of the crowds that must have annoyed the old gentleman — I confess however that I have a desire to take him by the hand

Phila^a Mar: 19. 1849.

Sir, I am in receipt this morning of the instructions from the Department of State in regard to the mode of obtaining the pass-port for which I wrote a few days ago.

They in reply to enclose a pass-port granted me by the Department in 1843 and with which I travelled in Europe for two years. This I presume will be sufficient, without the necessity of having a regular declaration before a notary. I would remark that the enclosed pass-port was forwarded upon a simple letter of request such as I had the honor to address you the other day. The pass-port should be for "Charles Stillie and wife aged 25 years accompanied by child Sophia H. Duller aged 21 years".

Desirous of obtaining Passports for myself and Brother, we wrote to the State Department, and from the informality of the request - have but just received the necessary form, - as the ship will probably sail from New York on Monday next, and knowing that the returns from the State Department are often delayed from the great pressure of business: Having at this time no acquaintance in Washington but yourself is the reason that has induced me at this time to make the request, from you that you would present them and see that I shall have them with as little delay as possible

With assurances of the greatest respect I remain Yours Truly

Mr J Pondleton called with Mr Geo cancel the Passports already written about by Mr Preston to be made out immediately - as Mr Scott and
